

Advance course in high-frequency facial ultrasound imaging

08:30	introduction, aim of the course; getting to know each other
09:00 – 12:00	basic ultrasound handling; based on experienced delegates divided in 2 groups: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1 basic US imaging: jawline, midface, temples2 advanced US imaging: zygoma, foramina around the eyes (mapping), supra-ocular vessels (mapping), neck, nerves (mapping), variations in mid- facial vascularity (mapping)
12:00 - 12:30	free time; getting lunch
12:30 - 13:30	during lunch time: complications and complication management (interactive) classification + examples of each category particular: pre-auricular, zygoma, mid-face
13:30 - 16:00	new injection strategies based on lessons from ultrasound (13.30-16.00) pre-auricular (30 min + 10 min discussion) zygoma (30 min + 10 min) midfacial (DMC fat pad) (30 min+ 10 min) temples (interfascial) (30 min + 10 min)
16:00 – 16:30	Q&A + round-up